

GOVERNOR ALLEN LAUDS ROOSEVELT

"Was World's Greatest Pacifist," the Kansas
Leader Says.

MEMORIAL MEETING TODAY

State Campaign Launched to Get Share of the $5,000,000 Fund.

Special to The World.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 12.—Theodore Roosevelt was in the judgment of the greatest pacifist the world has ever known.

This was the declaration of Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas, personal and political friend of the late president, in an address this afternoon at the Skirvin hotel here in launching the campaign in this state to raise $100,000 of the $5,000,000 national fund with which to provide suitable memorials for the former president. The occasion was a conference of the county chairman and state executive committee, held in Oklahoma to assist the state chairman, J. M. McGraw, of Ponca city, in carrying on the Roosevelt memorial campaign and conducting the drive during the week of October 24-27. A. McKeand of Indianapolis, regional director, was also in attendance and outlined the movement and the campaign methods to be followed. Following a noon luncheon, given in honor of the Kansas executive, and attended by the county chairman, Governor Allen was introduced by Chairman McGraw and paid an eloquent tribute to Colonel Roosevelt, saying that Roosevelt was the greatest pacifist because what he did was not for war but to insure peace.

Roosevelt was a human man, said Governor Allen. "His domestic life was ideal. Why, friends, it was just what the domestic life of every American citizen ought to be. It was as sweet as old-fashioned poetry. And his respect for womanhood was just what a man's respect for womanhood ought to be. No man ever loved him better than I. We all loved him because we knew that he belonged to the east and the west and the north and the south and the center of the country."

Gave His Boys Credit
Governor Allen said that when he returned from overseas last fall, he called on Mr. Roosevelt, then a patient in the Roosevelt hospital in New York city and said to him in a familiar way: "Well, Colonel Roosevelt, I am glad to find upon my return to America that you are becoming rather well known again throughout the land. I hope you will have a quick recovery to health. There is no telling what the people of this country might ask you to do if you are in good health, so I hope you will have an early recovery."

Colonel Roosevelt answered: "Peter Dunne gave me no hope yesterday along that line. He said: 'Colonel, if those boys of yours keep on, they will put the Roosevelt name on the map.'"

STATE BRIEFS

MIAMI, Okla., Sept. 12.—Again a "sucker" has put one over, this time on Police Judge George Rutherford. The judge found that he possessed a worthless check given to him by a man arrested for speeding.

WATFUKA, Sept. 12.—A jury in district court here this week returned a verdict of not guilty in the trial of H. L. Grant, charged with the murder of N. W. Gann, a wealthy stock farmer of this county, on the streets of Watfuka last March.

MUSKOGEE, Sept. 12.—Put not the faith in mortal woman be the advice that H. E. Leonard, traveling salesman, is now offering his friends after he was robbed of $100 and a diamond ring in his room at the Plaza hotel last night.

BURSTON, Sept. 12.—Cotton pickers will be scarce around Huston this fall 1919 year they received $1.20 to $2.00, but this year it is expected that the prices for pickers will go as high as $4. Many farmers are holding their cotton and refusing to sell at the present price.

HURSTON, Sept. 12.—A mass meeting will be held at the city hall next Monday evening to formulate plans for building a new $100,000 hotel for the city. The many of men coming to this city cannot be taken care of with the present number of hotels.

PERKINS, Sept. 12.—The first election for city officers was held here yesterday. Perkins is located on the Katy railroad between Hominy and Bartlesville and is a comparatively new town in Indian county, having started last March and grown to a city of 2,000 population in a short space of time.

MUSKOGEE, Sept. 12.—Action taken to thwart an alleged $100,000 steel was taken yesterday by County Judge Vernon when he appointed a local attorney to protect the interests of Eddie Lewis, wealthy negro, against whom petitions alleging incompetency are pending from the depredations of unscrupulous men who are said to have him in their hands.

CONTRACT LET BY STATE FOR 17-MILE HARD ROAD

Special to The World.
BARTLESVILLE, Sept. 12.—A contract was let yesterday afternoon by the state highway department for the construction of a seven-mile hard-surfaced road from Bartlesville through Okemah to Ramona. This is a state and federal aid project and will require the expenditure of half a million dollars.

The contract calls for a five inch concrete base and a two and one-half inch lake asphalt top. The form of construction is practically the same as that adopted by nearly every city for street pavement.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY CALLED AT MUSKOGEE

Judge Williams Makes the Call to Investigate Proficiency in Addition to Usual Crime.

Special to The World.

MUSKOGEE, Sept. 12.—A special session of the federal grand jury for the eastern district of Oklahoma has been called by Judge L. L. Williams to meet in Muskogee on September 22. Besides the usual violations of the federal laws the grand jury is expected to investigate certain cases of alleged profiteering. Five day upon such bills as may be returned by this grand jury has been set for October 1 at Muskogee.

The regular criminal term will open at Ardmore on October 8 and will continue to October 12, to be followed by a week or ten days' civil term. Judge Williams will preside. Eight of the criminal cases set for trial are from Tulsa. They are Carl E. Legate and O. E. Smalley, for forgery of obligations of United States; A. O. Walker, W. L. Walker, and Henry Helbert, violation of narcotic law; Lindsey Coleman and John Jones, rescuing seized property; E. L. Long, J. H. Kinzer, C. C. Johnson and L. E. Lewellyn, introducing liquor; M. G. Mingo, selling liquor to a soldier.

Hert Van Sickle, of Bartlesville, charged in several cases with being a United States officer and with conspiring to bribe an officer, three or four years ago, is scheduled for trial at this term.

CAPITOL NOTES

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 12.—W. P. Allen, secretary of the state corporation commission, spent yesterday at Bristol on a business errand.

John G. Mitchell, president of the Central State Normal school, Edmond, was a business visitor at the offices of the state board of education yesterday afternoon.

J. M. Ryle, publisher of the Hobart Democrat-Chief, and J. E. Knight, of Wynnewood, member of the state senate from the Garvin-Cleveland-McLean counties district, were business visitors at the statehouse yesterday afternoon.

Frank Fowler of Ardmore city, Kansas, Thomas S. Downs of Lawton, and George H. Thompson of Okmulgee were among those who transacted business with state departments yesterday.

Dr. J. A. Young of Maryville, has succeeded Charles L. Daugherty as deputy state auditor in charge of the collection of income and inheritance taxes. Mr. Daugherty, who resigned several days ago, probably will engage in business for himself.

Campbell Russell, member of the state corporation commission, and Charles L. London, official stenographer for the commission, went to Mt. View yesterday to conduct a hearing on a complaint of discrimination by a shareholder.

R. E. Echols, member of the state corporation commission, returned yesterday from Dallas, Texas, where he went to inspect the automatic system of telephone in use in the Texas metropolis. H. R. Higginbotham, telephone expert of the commission, remained in Dallas to continue his inspection of the system.

Governor Robertson and R. H. Wilson, state superintendent of public instruction, who spoke yesterday afternoon at Chickasha at the county free fair, pronounced the exhibits as being the best display of county agricultural products they had inspected. The addresses of Governor Robertson and Mr. Wilson were heard by a large audience, who frequently demonstrated their approval of the texts of the speeches.
